CONSENT AWARD AND ORDER

¶ 1

WHEREAS the Employer and the Union ("the parties") entered in to a collective agreement dated August 31, 2001, which agreement was duly ratified by the membership of the Union on September 23, 2001, and

WHEREAS the Employer issued layoff notices on or about September 21, 2001 to the employees whose employment was governed by the said collective agreement ("the grievors"), and

WHEREAS the Union filed a grievance under the provisions of the collective agreement on October 19, 2001, alleging failure by the Employer to pay wages and severance to the grievors, and

WHEREAS the parties have appointed the undersigned to serve as sole arbitrator under Article 21 of the collective agreement to hear and determine the grievances herein, and

WHEREAS the parties agree to a Consent Award and Order directing the Employer to pay wages and severance for and on behalf of the grievors, as set forth in Schedule "A" hereto,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that on or before November 28, 2001, the Employer shall pay to the Union on behalf of the grievors the amount set forth in Schedule "A", which is attached to the forms part of the Consent Award and Order.
